

FORGING OF A NATION

APRIL 30–MAY 6, 2004, TUCSON

This institute focuses on the thoughts of the Founders and the continuing relevance of their ideals, with lectures by some of America’s leading historians.

George Washington	Gordon Wood History, Brown
James Madison	Gordon Wood
Thomas Jefferson	Joseph Ellis History, Mt. Holyoke
John Adams	Joseph Ellis
The Common Law Origins Of American Constitutionalism	Gary McDowell University of Richmond
The Forgotten Founders	Michael Novak American Enterprise Institute
Abraham Lincoln	Harry Jaffa Government, Claremont Institute

Gordon Wood and Joseph Ellis are Pulitzer Prize winners and our leading scholars on eighteenth century America. Gary McDowell is a noted Blackstone scholar, and Michael Novak is a distinguished scholar and author of On Two Wings. Harry Jaffa is the author of Crisis of the House Divided and the best-known scholar on Lincoln’s role in identifying the implications of the Founders’ ideas.

GORDON WOOD

MICHAEL NOVAK